Exercise

Explain in your own words what a Blog is

________________________________

________________________________

________________________________

________________________________

________________________________

________________________________

Identify 5 examples of good blog etiquette

________________________________

________________________________

________________________________

________________________________

________________________________

Create an account with Weebly and create a simple blog or website

You do not have to publish it however if you do talk to one of the facilitators who can help you un-publish it if you wish to.